METHODS OF FORMATION OF INDEPENDENT THINKING IN STUDENTS

Gulchehra Ergashova
Comprehensive school No. 6 in Chirchik, Tashkent region

ABSTRACT

The article provides feedback on the organization of independent work of students in general secondary education and its scientifically and methodologically effective management. The importance and important conditions of effective methods in the formation of independent thinking in students are substantiated.

Keywords: perfection, observation, globalization, trend, tolerance, democracy, humanity, individuality, freedom, character, process, heritage, qualification.