ABSTRACT

The manifold aspects of the works of AliShir Navai are immediately reflected in his ideas on man, his destiny, his place in the being, his happiness and wellbeing. According to the author, the society is of paramount importance in man’s search for perfection and divine and social environment determines the spiritual image of the individual. Accordingly, the whole creative life of Navai was directed at the task of illuminating and illustrating the interrelations between society and the individual, and he soaked, so to speak, this idea in his multi-volume works. The idea of elevation of man up to the level of highest value is reflected in Navai’s magnum opus: Khamsa, and this collection of books also contain philosophical analyses on this topic.

Keywords: man, being of man, society, being, loyalty, perseverance, love, virtue, justice, knowledge, nature.
